Be Active!
Be Committed!
Be a BCOAG Voting Member!

Black Commissioned Officer Advisory Group (BCOAG) is a collective public health professional body whose primary mission is to provide advice and consultation to the Surgeon General on matters related to public health and the Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health Service. A BCOAG Voting Member serves as an advocate for African-American officers regarding their careers and professional development, while simultaneously exemplifying values of officership, excellence, and service.

BENEFITS: Leadership, Positive Impact, Officer Advocacy, Team-Building, Knowledge Sharing, Problem Solving, and Organization Operational Knowledge

TERM: 3-year tenure beginning January 2020

EXPECTATIONS: Voting members must lead and/or actively participate on a standing or ad-hoc committee and attend meetings regularly.

APPLY: Interested officers must submit by 1 July 2019

- A Complete Application
- Category CV Summary Sheet
- Supervisory Concurrence
- Basic Readiness Status
- Promotion Information Report (PIR)

For more information, please visit https://dcp.psc.gov/OSG/bcoag/eligibility.aspx