AND HUMAN SERVICES

PERSONNEL OPERATIONS MEMORANDUM

POM 12-010
EFFECTIVE DATE: 18 September 2012

By Order of the Surgeon General of the U.S. Public Health Service:

VADM Regina M. Benjamin, MD, MBA

TO: All Corps Officers on Extended Active Duty

SUBJECT: Uniform of the Day – Fall and Winter

1. In accordance with Commissioned Corps Instruction (CCI) CC26.3.2, "Required Wear of the Uniform," this Personnel Operations Memorandum (POM) prescribes the fall and winter uniform of the day for officers of the Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health Service (Corps).
 - a. This POM does not apply to officers under the jurisdiction of a separate uniform authority as outlined in CC26.3.2.
 - b. This POM does not apply to Corps officers appointed to the Junior or Senior Commissioned Officer Student Training and Extern Program (COSTEP).
2. Effective 0001 Hours, 1 October 2012, the prescribed fall and winter uniform of the day is the Service Dress Blue (SDB). Alternative uniforms are the Modified Service Dress Blue Sweater (MSDBS) and the Service Khaki (SK).
3. The SDB shall be worn for all official functions, high-level meetings, and ceremonies (e.g., awards and promotions) where civilian equivalent is coat and tie.
4. Officers assigned to patient care or laboratory areas may wear a suitable lab coat over the uniform when required to perform assigned duties see CC26.3.7, "Special Uniform Situations," for more guidance on protective clothing.
6. The Battle Dress Uniform (BDU) or Operational Dress Uniform (ODU) shall not be worn for high-level meetings or ceremonies; in such cases, an appropriate service uniform shall be worn. The BDU/ODU shall not be worn at the Hubert H. Humphrey Building or the Wilbur J. Cohen Building at any time. The BDU/ODU is authorized for wear under the following conditions:
 - a. One day per week as an alternate to a service uniform. The BDU/ODU is authorized for wear to and from work, in public places, and for attending working level meetings.

- b. When part of a work detail where safety, work or environmental conditions make other uniforms unsafe, inappropriate or otherwise impractical.
 - c. When prescribed by the Office of the Surgeon General (OSG).
7. Special Uniform Situations, Ceremonial Uniforms, and Dinner Dress
- a. Officers testifying before Congress, attending Congressional Hearings, or conducting official business on Capitol Hill shall wear the SDB, regardless of the season.
 - b. Officers conducting official business or attending official functions at the White House shall wear the SDB. Regardless of the pay grade, officers attending White House or State Department dinners or social functions shall wear the Dinner Dress Blue Jacket. Officers assigned or detailed to the White House may wear the appropriate seasonal service dress or service uniform, unless White House protocol dictates otherwise.
 - c. The Full Dress Blue (FDB) shall be worn when participating in change of command ceremonies, occasions of State, solemnities, or when escorting or entertaining official visitors with honors or foreign officials and dignitaries.
 - d. Operating Division/Staff Division (OPDIV/STAFFDIV) Heads may prescribe the SDB to be worn by officers under their jurisdiction for ceremonial occasions, high-level meetings, or other appropriate circumstances.
 - i. OPDIV/STAFFDIV Heads are prohibited from directing female officers to wear the skirt in lieu of slacks.
 - ii. OPDIV/STAFFDIV Heads are prohibited from issuing other directives concerning uniforms.
 - e. Officers engaged in domestic travel may elect to wear either the service uniform of the day prescribed by the area to which the officer is traveling, or the SDB.
 - f. The Dinner Dress Blue Jacket (prescribable for O-4 and above, optional for O-3 and below) and Dinner Dress Blue (O-3 and below only) are authorized for wear at the appropriate dinner or social function where the civilian dress equivalent is white or black tie. Officers should consult with their host to determine the appropriate formal/dinner dress uniform.
8. Uniform Guidance
- a. The MSDBS is not authorized for wear when attending high-level meetings or ceremonies; in such cases, the SDB Coat shall be worn.
 - b. The Black Windbreaker Jacket (BWJ) is authorized for wear in lieu of the SDB coat. The BWJ shall not be worn in lieu of the SDB Coat when attending ceremonies or high-level meetings; in such cases, the SDB Jacket shall be worn.
 - c. The Navy Sweater is not authorized to be worn in conjunction with the SDB Coat.
 - d. The Utility Cap (Navy style 8-point utility cover) shall be worn with the BDU unless otherwise prescribed.

- e. The Command Ball Cap shall be worn with the ODU unless otherwise prescribed.
- 9. Requests for exceptions to wearing the prescribed uniform for specific events must be submitted in writing to the Office of the Surgeon General through the Uniform Coordinator for approval.
- 10. Daily uniform wear and continuous attention to detail will ensure the uniform is worn properly. A sharp and properly worn uniform will positively reflect on the officer wearing the uniform and the Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health Service. Pride in appearance is the mark of respect, responsibility, and professionalism expected of every Corps officer.
