Overlook new updates to readiness and deployment requirements

Do

 Know that the Deployment Preparation Plan (DPP), formerly known as the Family Care Plan, is a new readiness requirement that will be effective December 2022.

 Know that all U.S. Public Health Service Commissioned Corps Officers will be required to complete and submit an initial DPP during their birth month after the effective date of December 2022.

 Know that a DPP is valid for twelve months and is required to be updated when a change in circumstances occurs (i.e., new family member, divorce, dependent parent).

 Know that Officers must maintain a DPP and be prepared to submit to CCHQ when advised.
