Decorations and Insignias are established and awarded in accordance with USPHS-CC511.01. Medals and Ribbons are arranged in accordance with precedence established in CC26.3.3.

- Distinguished Service Medal
- Surgeon General’s Medallion
- Meritorious Service Medal
- Surgeon General’s Exemplary Service Medal
- Outstanding Service Medal
- PHS Citation Medal
- Global Health Campaign Medal
- Hazardous Duty Award Medal
- Foreign Duty Award Medal
- Special Assignment Award Medal
- Isolated/Handship Award Medal
- Achievement Medal
- Global Response Service Award Medal
- Response Service Award Medal
- Citation Service Medal
- National Emergency Preparedness Medal
- Recruitment Service Medal
- Global Health Initiative Service Medal
- Bicentennial Unit Commendation Medal
- Commendation Medal
- Smallpox Eradication Campaign Ribbon
- Global Health Campaign Medal
- Hazardous Duty Award
- Foreign Duty Award
- Special Assignment Award
- Isolated/Handship Award
- Recycling Service Award Medal
- Global Response Service Award
- National Emergency Preparedness Award
- Recruitment Service Ribbon
- Global Health Initiative Service Medal
- Bicentennial Unit Commendation
- Distinguished Unit Citation
- Unit Commendation
- Meritorious Service Medal
- Surgeon General’s Exemplary Service Medal
- Outstanding Service Medal
- Surgeon General’s Medallion
- Surgeon General’s Insignia
- Deputy Surgeon General’s Insignia
- Officer in Charge Insignia
- Chief Professional Officer Insignia
- Recruiter Badge
- Associate Recruiter Badge
- Gold Star (5/16") in lieu of a second or subsequent individual honor awards
- Silver Star (5/16") in lieu of 5 gold stars
- Bronze Star (3/16") in lieu of a second or subsequent unit or service awards
- Silver Star (3/16") in lieu of 5 bronze stars
- "V" valor device. For wear only on the DSM, DSM, and DSM to recognize acts of courage and bravery.

Decorations and Insignias are established and awarded in accordance with USPHS-CC511.01. Medals and Ribbons are arranged in accordance with precedence established in CC26.3.3.