

JUNIOR OFFICER ADVISORY GROUP

2014-2015 Voting Membership Biographies

LT Daveta Bailey
Voting Member 2014-2016
Chair: Communications and Publications Committee
Environmental Health Officer Professional
Advisory Committee Liaison

LT Daveta Bailey is an Environmental Health Officer commissioned in the U.S. Public Health Service. LT Bailey received her Bachelors of Science degree in Environmental Health and Safety from the East Carolina University located in Greenville, NC. In 2013, LT Bailey received her Masters of Science in Management with a concentration in Disaster and Emergency Preparedness from Colorado Technical University.

LT Bailey is currently serving as a Supervisory Consumer Safety Officer with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration. LT Bailey's previous assignments include: FDA: Tampa, FL, Tallahassee, FL, and Raleigh, NC and two COSTEP assignments at the Clinical Center at NIH, Bethesda, MD.

LT Bailey is responsible for managing the Domestic and Import Operations at the Savannah, GA and Charleston, SC Resident Posts. In addition to her everyday management duties, LT Bailey also serves as the District New Hire Training Coordinator where she is tasked with the development and implementation of new investigator training.

LT Bailey is currently a member of the RDF 3 Deployment team and has deployment experience under Deepwater Horizon, Tallahassee, FL, Hurricane Sandy, Edison, NJ and most recently the UAC Mission in Nogales, AZ. LT Bailey also deploys to Food Safety Emergencies under the FDA/State Rapid Response Team Infrastructures.

During the 2013-2014, LT Bailey served as the Co-Chair for the Communications and Publications Committee. In previous years, she served as the: Secretary, and On-Line Resources Team Lead under the Recruitment and Retention Committee. LT Bailey is also the current Chair of the Environmental Health Officer Professional Advisory Committee/ Training Subcommittee.