

JUNIOR OFFICER ADVISORY GROUP

2014-2016 Voting Membership Biographies

LCDR Avi Stein
Voting Membership 2015-2017
Co-Chair: Professional Development Committee
Health Services PAC Liaison
Commissioned Officers Training Academy Liaison

LCDR Avi Stein joined the U.S. Public Health Service (USPHS) in 2013 as a Health Services Officer, assigned to the Center's for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Office of Public Health Preparedness and Response (OPHPR), Division of the Strategic National Stockpile (DSNS). LCDR Stein is responsible for internal staff development and training of emergency response personnel assigned to DSNS, assuring competency during responses to a Public Health emergency.

LCDR Stein joined JOAG in 2013, serving on the Development Committee and transitioning to the Professional Development Committee as a co-chair of the Cross-Cutting Initiatives sub-committee. In 2015, LCDR Stein became a JOAG Voting Member, and took on the role of co-chair of the Professional Development Committee, as well as liaison to the Health Services

Officer Professional Advisory Committee and liaison to the Commissioned Officers Training Academy.

LCDR Stein graduated from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst with a Bachelor's of Science with Individual Concentration in Psychosocial Medicine and Public Health Care in 1999, and returned for a Master's in Public Health graduating in 2001. LCDR Stein is working on the final dissertation for a Ph.D. in Epidemiology from Walden University.