

JUNIOR OFFICER ADVISORY GROUP

2015-2017 Voting Membership Biographies

LCDR Kristie Purdy, MS, RD/LD
Voting Membership 2015-2017
Co-Chair: Outreach Committee

LCDR Kristie Purdy serves as a JOAG voting member. She is a registered dietitian and serves in the role of Public Health Nutritionist at Clinton Indian Health Center in Clinton, Oklahoma. In her role, LCDR Purdy provides outpatient medical nutrition therapy to three clinics in western Oklahoma, leads community health promotion and disease prevention projects, and is the public information officer for the Clinton Service Unit.

LCDR Purdy joined the Commissioned Corps in February 2012. Since joining, she has served JOAG as part of the Agency Training Program subcommittee of the Recruitment and Retention committee as the Material's Lead before becoming Co-Chair of the Agency Training Program subcommittee.

LCDR Purdy completed her undergraduate work in Journalism and Mass Communication at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, OK. She completed her post-graduate work at the University of Oklahoma Health Science Center in Oklahoma City, OK, where she earned a Master of Science in Nutrition Sciences.

If you have any questions about the JOAG Outreach Committee, please feel free to contact LCDR Purdy at Krisite.Purdy@ihs.gov.